

Transfer between Fidelity Accounts

Use this form to transfer a Fidelity Account® (brokerage account) to another Fidelity Account. This form authorizes Fidelity to transfer the securities from the former account to the new account.

Read all instructions carefully, use a pen and print clearly. Consult legal counsel in your state if you have specific questions. Complete the Customer Information in Section One. All currently registered account owners must sign in Section Two, and a signature guarantee is required if your transfer is:

- Adding a new owner or authorized person to an account, and the transfer amount is greater than $100,000, OR
- Removing any owner from an account, and the transfer amount is greater than $10,000.

The account receiving the assets must already be established, or you must include a completed new account application with this form. In cases of the death of an account owner, the Executor or Administrator should provide a certified copy of his or her court appointment as Executor or Administrator dated within the last 60 days.

SIGNATURE GUARANTEE STAMP

A signature guarantee is designed to protect you and Fidelity from fraud. You should be able to obtain a signature guarantee from a bank, broker, broker/dealer, credit union (if authorized under state law), securities exchange or association, clearing agency or savings association. A notary public cannot provide a signature guarantee, and a notarization cannot be accepted in lieu of a signature guarantee.
